

Chalet Le Blanchot Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the funky home cinema room, the piste-side location and the 'straight off the pages of an interior design magazine' vibe.

Ooh la la. The chic-ometer is totally off the scale at Chalet Le Blanchot. This luxury ski chalet occupies a great position just a few minutes (approx 100m) from the Bellecote piste of Courchevel 1850 and is an interior designer's dream. But that's not all: a supreme level of personal service is provided by the dedicated chalet staff, including a butler and private chef.

It's so lovely to be able to ski almost back to the door of your Alpine retreat, especially in the exceptional surroundings of Courchevel. And when you step inside, you'll be blown away by the decadence and sophistication around you. Furnished in the finest leather, stone, luxurious fabrics and fitted with state-of-the-art technology, Chalet Le Blanchot hides its contemporary design behind a traditional wood-clad exterior.

Settle in to the gloriously light, open plan living area, a welcome glass of bubbly in your hand. Enjoy the magnificent mountain views from the wide balcony and feel the warm satisfaction of being waited on hand and foot in such beautiful surroundings. Just relax - all arrangements for ski passes, equipment hire and lessons can be made on your behalf. There's even a chauffeur on hand to drive you around town. In fact, there's no need to exert yourself until you ski out into the crisp, glittering snow.

Do make sure, however, that you ski back to Chalet Le Blanchot in good time to make full use of the fabulous swimming pool, Jacuzzi and steam room in the extensive spa area. Massages and beauty treatments can also be arranged in-house. Then later, after dinner in the sophisticated dining area, slip into the home cinema room, all soft and glamorous with reclining chairs to enjoy a movie in. You can even have drinks and popcorn, served by the butler.

Everything about Chalet Le Blanchot screams of sophisticated contemporary style, from the high tech audio visual systems, to the sumptuous bathrooms with designer toiletries, to the internal elevator. Luxury ski chalets in Courchevel don't come much better than this.

Eating

When you stay at Chalet Le Blanchot, the level of catering provided is entirely up to you, as all food and beverage costs are charged for separately.

The exception to this rule is the complimentary drinks served on your arrival as well as soft tea and coffee. A highly trained private chef provides the kind of pampering gourmet experience that makes a luxury chalet holiday really special. From energising breakfasts through to après ski treats and divine dinners, everything can be made to suit your tastes. Lunch can also be arranged on request.

You also have your very own butler looking after you too. Having someone on hand to mix the perfect cocktail, bringing your drinks and snacks to wherever you are, is a wonderful treat. Having a butler to meet and greet guests when you throw a party, and to keep the drinks flowing, is a must.
