

Chalet Le Love Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the generous room sizes, including two master suites that are almost apartments in their own right.

Le Love is a luxury ski chalet in Courchevel 1850, which has all the privacy and quiet of a private apartment but is set within the Hotel Le Saint Roch, with all its facilities on tap. This fabulously stylish 2-floored penthouse is a joy to spend time in.

Designed in beautiful, muted tones of grey, chocolate and off whites, illuminated by copper and pearl accents, the apartment is a relaxing haven, which gently glows with warmth. All the fixtures and fittings are of the very highest standard, from the heavy linen upholstery on the headboards to the top-of-the-range plasma TV. Throughout the property, your comfort is clearly the number one priority.

Two fabulous suites sit atop the duplex apartment. With luxury touches such as supremely comfortable seating areas and hammams and rainfall showers in the en-suite bathrooms, you'll feel perfectly relaxed here.

In the communal living areas, chic design ideas are combined with plush furniture and furnishings to create sitting and dining areas that are just perfect for catching up with friends over a glass or three of fine wine, or a delicious evening meal. Your private butler is always on hand to ensure your every need is catered for, and the highly trained, multilingual staff of the hotel are also available to help wherever they can.

When you're not out on the slopes enjoying the wonderful skiing Courchevel has to offer, slip down to the hotel's spa for a dip in the stunning indoor swimming pool, with a 'bubble' chandelier that is more of a work of art than a lighting piece, or a massage, or even a facial in the luxury spa. If pampering isn't your thing, simply take the papers and a drink down to the bar or cigar lounge for some quality me-time and solitude.
