

Chalet Sorojasa Verbier, Switzerland

What we love...

We love a swim in Sorojasa's stunning 11m pool after a day's skiing does wonders to recuperate tired legs. And of course, being so close to the Médran lifts is ideal.

Space to play, space to share, space to relax. This luxury ski chalet in Verbier really does have something for everyone, making it a great property to share with friends and family.

Chalet Sorojasa is built over five floors with the main open plan living space on the top floor. The result – commanding views over Val de Bagnes and the peaks of Mont Blanc in the distance. The good news is that the chalet is equipped with its own lift, a welcome relief after a day on the slopes.

To help you relax, the chalet has a Hammam and massages can also be arranged in the treatment room, perfect to soothe tired muscles. But perhaps the pièce de résistance at Chalet Sorojasa is the stunning 11m swimming pool.

Adults and children alike will love the separate TV room with games area, complete with table football and bar.

Chalet Sorojasa is a short distance from the main lift station at Médran, but is tucked away in a quiet secluded spot just off the beaten track. It's perfectly placed for a gentle stroll into town to peruse the swish boutiques of Verbier.

Dining

A dedicated host and chef will keep you well fed and watered throughout your stay at Chalet Sorojasa.

Each morning, a hearty breakfast will fuel you for a day out in the snow. Cooked options are offered on five mornings and a continental spread on two mornings. When you return, afternoon tea will be laid out on five days.

On five evenings, canapés and drinks are served while your chef prepares an elegant meal for you. Carefully selected wines will be paired with your dinner. The chef will be in touch prior to your stay to discuss any allergies or dietary requirements.

You'll have two evenings to sample the local restaurants of Verbier on staff days off and your chalet host will be more than happy to make recommendations and bookings.
