

Presidential Spa Villa Zakynthos, Greece

What we love...

We love the outdoor lounge, especially stretching out on sofas under the sun.

If you want to experience genuine outdoor living, the Presidential Spa is the place to do it. This luxury villa on the award winning Porto Zante estate in Zakynthos is decorated to a high level, in simple, neutral shades, and offers wonderful 'extras' as standard, such as Jacuzzi baths, hydro jet showers and more, all in a beachfront property looking straight out to the ocean.

Step through the panoramic glass doors onto your private deck, and you're in your own al fresco home. An outdoor dining area provides a lovely spot to enjoy your evening meal, while watching the sun set on Kefalonia just across the water, and an equally wonderful backdrop to breakfast - there's nothing like the sound of the sea to make you feel raring to go in the morning.

Nearby, there's an outside lounge by Gervasoni and even an al fresco shower to invigorate you before a dip in the pool.

Indoor and outdoor are merged so beautifully here, whether you're wandering through the gardens, or soaking in your private Jacuzzi bathtub, you're always fully immersed in this luxury beachfront lifestyle.

And when you want to relax even more there is the waterfront spa which is situated right above the water with views across the Ionian sea. With over 20 signature therapies to be tried whilst in the spa's luxurious and relaxing environment, you may end up booking in every day.

Kids

Children are honoured guests at the Porto Zante resort, with lots of supervised activities at the wonderful kids club so that parents can have some me-time. There's also a playground where they can burn off energy and make new friends. But as well as the 'big things', the little details are taken care of here, too...dedicated dining menus, bath toys in the bathrooms, and, for older children, a Playstation 4 to keep them amused while the adults chat over dinner.

The Presidential Spa villa itself is spacious and simply furnished, leaving plenty of room to play, and there's an abundance of outdoor space for children to enjoy, with a private pool and private garden, too.

Babysitters are available upon request.

Location

The villa is located within the exclusive resort of Porto Zante on the Greek island of Zakynthos, just off the western coast of the mainland.

It's 15 minutes' drive to the main town and harbour.

The island's airport is a 20 minute drive away.
