

Son Balagueret Majorca, Spain

What we love...

The stunning bedroom based in the original 13th century turret, which is steeped in Mallorcan history.

Rustic charm is enhanced by contemporary chic at Son Balagueret, a secluded Mallorcan villa with private swimming pool. You'll feel immersed in tradition the minute you step through the courtyard entrance to this luxury stone-built villa, complete with original 13th century turret.

Yet Son Balagueret feels fresh and inviting too. Modern art on the walls blend seamlessly with classic touches such as wooden shutters, classic Spanish tiled floors, antique rugs and terracotta pots filled with Spanish blooms. It is ideally located in an exclusive estate of villas in a discreet spot with stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea. Enjoy alfresco lunches on the outdoor dining terrace with sea views.

From there, it's a short stroll to the heated outdoor pool. Help yourself to a glass of something fizzy and settle on an inviting lounge to soak up the afternoon sun.

Sip sundowners on the outdoor lounge area as evening beckons. Later, the spacious open plan lounge and dining area offer the perfect spot to gather with your party before dinner.

Your concierge at this luxury villa will be happy to arrange activities such as golf and sailing. If you require restaurant recommendations and booking, that won't be a problem either.
