St. Martin de Belleville, France

What we love...

This luxury ski chalet's private wood sauna – the ideal spot for soothing tired muscles.

Newly built, this luxury self-catered ski chalet offers a contemporary home from home in Villarabout, just above and a short drive to charming village of St. Martin de Belleville.

Channelling contemporary alpine luxe in its design and décor, Chalet Aralia's calming soft grey and neutral palette is enhanced by local woods and natural materials. Each of the four main bedrooms at this luxury ski chalet offers an en-suite bathroom. Conveniently, there's an additional bunk room to accommodate two junior guests.

After a day on the slopes, you'll have plenty of space to chill out in this luxury ski chalet's open plan living area which boasts a double height ceiling and Smart TV. Claim your place on the vast designer corner sofa or the stylish velvet loveseat by the glass-fronted log fire, the perfect place to relax and enjoy a glass of wine with friends after a fun day on the slopes.

The ambient dining area is designed with intimate dinner parties in mind, complete with Villeroy & Boch crockery and crystal glassware. Post dinner, throw open the doors and head out onto the terrace for a nightcap as you enjoy those dreamy panoramic views.

And let's just talk about that hot tub, shall we? Located on the terrace, along with deckchairs adorned with cosy sheepskins, it's the ideal spot for admiring the mountain views. When you require a wee bit more R&R, slip on an Egyptian cotton bathrobe and pad down to this luxury chalet's own private wood sauna – just the ticket for easing tired muscles.

For larger groups, Chalet Aralia can be booked alongside Chalet Aphylla (semi-detached sister chalet) to accommodate up to 16 + 2 guests.
