

Chalet Arosa Val d'Isere

What we love...

We love the sun-drenched terrace with its outdoor hot tub and south-facing mountain views.

Built in a classic alpine style, this traditional luxury ski chalet with hot tub feels like a home-away-from-home from the moment you step inside. Nestled in the exclusive hamlet of Le Crêt, Chalet Arosa enjoys the peace and privacy of being set back from the main road, while also being just a few minutes' drive from Val d'Isère's ski lifts, pistes, and many fabulous shops and restaurants.

The heart of the chalet is undoubtedly the double-height living area, which, with its wooden beams, stone fireplace, and large south- and west-facing windows, is at once cosy and spacious. After a day of making fresh tracks on the mountain, the enormous comfortable sofas are the ideal place to sprawl out with a slice of cake and admire uninterrupted views of the surrounding peaks. From here, head out onto the terrace for a soak in the bubbling outdoor hot tub, the ultimate post-ski relaxation.

Chalet Arosa's dining area is perfect for entertaining, with a large oak table and fully equipped open plan kitchen. Here you can either cook your own meals, or simply heat up a delicious pre-prepared dish if you've chosen the 'contactless catering' service. After dinner, take a glass of wine up to the mezzanine TV snug for a movie night with your family and friends.

Chalet Arosa has five comfortable bedrooms to choose from, each with its own en-suite bathroom. If you're lucky enough to arrive at the chalet first, make sure you secure one of the two rooms with west-facing balconies offering sublime sunset views.

Dining

There is a choice of service level at Chalet Arosa so that your luxury ski holiday is exactly the way you want it.

With the 'contactless catering' service, you'll have all your meals delivered to your door, allowing you to enjoy the catered ski chalet experience without the need for staff – perfect for those who like their own space. Your kitchen will be pre-stocked with flavourful prepared meals for you to heat up, and some fresh ingredients to make your own sides. Begin each day with a nutritious breakfast, and a tempting afternoon tea will be waiting for you on your return from the slopes. On six nights, indulge in delicious three-course dinners, a pre-dinner kir with nibbles, and cheese. What better way to finish your meal than with a glass of the unlimited wine as you retire to the sofas by the fire.

Alternatively, if you prefer to cook your own feasts in the well-equipped kitchen, or try out some of Val d'Isère's excellent restaurants, enjoy the self-catered basis.

A bed and breakfast option is also available. The chalet will be stocked with fruit & yoghurts, cheese & cold meats, eggs & bacon, etc, all of which will be topped-up as needed. Fresh bread & croissants are also delivered each morning.

Kids

Children will love staying at Chalet Arosa, with the outdoor hot tub to splash around in, and the open plan living area providing a space for them to play while you chat with friends over an aperitif nearby. The TV snug makes the perfect den, filled with bean bags and blankets for your little ones to get comfy on while they watch a film.

The in-resort driver service is available to shuttle the whole family to and from the slopes, ensuring mornings before ski school are stress-free.

You can even pre-book lift passes and ski equipment so that everything is organised for your arrival – no traipsing around the resort with tired children.

Childcare and ski lessons can also be arranged on request.
