

Chalet Blanc Morzine

What we love...

We love the flexibility of space in this stylish chalet - two outdoor dining areas to take advantage of both sunny mornings and sunsets, and two living areas, as well as a beautiful cinema room. Everyone will find the perfect place to relax here.

Luxury self-catered ski chalets don't come more welcoming than the lovely Chalet Blanc in Morzine. As stylish as it is contemporary, this property is an ideal base for a group of family and friends to explore the area and enjoy some of the best skiing in the world.

Flexible bedrooms mean that whoever is in your party, you'll all find a bolthole perfect for you and all but one of the rooms can be configured as either a double or twin. Of course it goes without saying that all the rooms are super cosy and comfortable, too, with luxury bathrooms that make them really special.

This a truly sociable chalet, with lots of space to gather in with friends and also plenty of room to find a little peace and quiet, too. The open-plan living area has a great dining space where you can sit over wine and good food long into the evening. There are also two seating spaces, one around the fire and the other, a little nook where you can snuggle up to watch

TV or read a book. Additionally, there's a wonderful cinema room with twinkling ceiling lights, that make you feel like you're watching a movie under the stars. It's a perfect space for getting together in the evenings, or letting the kids watch a special movie matinee on a lazy afternoon when they're home from the slopes.

Stunning though the interiors are, one of the most magical things about this luxury ski chalet is the use of outdoor space. Chalet Blanc enjoys a delightful, peaceful woodland setting and has wraparound decks with views of Mont Chery, Pleney, Pont de Nyon and Parc des Dereches. There is a seating area with wonderful views of the mountains and treetops below, and then there's another designed to make the most of the fabulous sunsets. Whether you're having a mindful moment with your morning coffee or watching the sun go down with a glass of bubbly and a few close friends, Chalet Blanc makes the perfect backdrop.

Dining

Chalet Blanc is offered on a self-catered basis, giving you have the flexibility to set your own schedule on your luxury ski holiday. On arrival, you'll find a welcome basket with essential groceries (including a bottle of Champagne, of course!).

Chefs can be arranged if you prefer, to prepare delicious breakfasts, afternoon teas and evening meals so you won't have to lift a finger.

But for those who want to experience all Morzine has to offer, we recommend you venture out in the evenings and discover the town's many wonderful restaurants and bars. We particularly like La Paika, up on the piste above Les Gets – on sunny days you can dine out on the lovely terrace – and L'Atelier at Hotel Le Samoyède, particularly its seven-course Fantasia Chablaisienne menu.

Back at Chalet Blanc, though, there is a cosy dining area where you can enjoy home-cooked meals and two outside dining spaces, one positioned to enjoy the morning sun at breakfast, and another to make the most of the sunsets. Just perfect.

Chalet Blanc

Kids

This is a well-thought-out, family-friendly ski chalet. Everything is looked after, from the practicalities – such as a useful laundry room and several bedrooms that convert easily to twin rooms – to the nice little extras such as cinema room for the kids to enjoy while the adults gather round the fire in the evenings.

Those with slightly younger children will love the fact that the main living area also has two seating areas, so little ones can curl up in front of the TV, while you keep a watchful eye on them over a glass of bubbly while catching up with friends.

Cots and highchairs can be supplied and nannies and babysitters can be arranged on request.

Staff

Resort staff include:
In-resort concierge service

Additional staff such as a private chef, chalet host, in-resort driver service, nannies and massage therapists can be arranged on request.
