

Chalet Les Trois Soeurs Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the beautiful spa on the lower ground floor with rainfall shower, Jacuzzi, hammam and massage room.

Relax completely in this rustic retreat, just a stone's throw from the Bellecote piste. This ski chalet in Courchevel is the perfect combination of luxury and character, with all the treats you'd hope for, from cinema room to spa, combined with quirky designer details and natural materials such as rustic woods and stone.

When you wake in the morning at Chalet Les Trois Soeurs and throw the curtains open to the snowy scene outside, breakfast is already delivered and waiting for you, so you can be out on the slopes within moments. Just pull on your ski gear in the boot room and set off. After an energetic morning on the Bellecote Piste, it's handy to know the comfort of your sofa is a matter of minutes away.

Back in your luxury ski chalet, there's plenty to keep every member of your party busy in the long, leisurely afternoons. You might like to book yourself in for a massage or facial in the beautiful spa, where natural stone and a rainfall shower create a truly restful atmosphere. Alternatively, gather your party and head to the cinema room for popcorn and a movie. Or, simply curl up on the sofas in the living room with a good book and a hot drink for the afternoon while the snow falls outside.

The living area is a paean to comfort and cosiness, with sumptuous velvet sofas gathered around a statement fireplace and lamps subtly illuminating each corner of the room. Nearby, an intimate dining area provides the perfect backdrop to relaxed meals that go on into the evening, whether cooked in the well-appointed kitchen by yourselves or served up by your professional chef (can be arranged for the duration of your stay at an additional cost).

In the bedrooms, rustic woods, luxe curtains and faux fur throws add cosy mountain style to your bedroom boltholes, meaning there's plenty of space in this chalet not only to socialise and entertain friends but also to find a little peace and quiet. Head out onto the balcony at night as the sky darkens over the mountain and breathe in the silent air and you'll see exactly what we mean.
