

Chalet Vesper Morzine

What we love...

We love the luxe and cosy living space on the top floor of this barn conversion; everything within easy reach but plenty of room for everyone to find their own space.

A stylish converted barn forms a cosy and spacious backdrop for your luxury self-catered ski holiday in Morzine. Chalet Vesper retains its relaxed, rustic credentials but now boasts designer fixtures and fittings and stylish interiors that bring rustic right up to date.

It's a very sociable space to share with friends and loved ones, with one sprawling floor forming the whole of the open-plan living area, from the cosy dining room with refectory style table, to two separate sitting areas, one with a roaring fire and floor-to-ceiling library, to the chic, sleek kitchen with breakfast area, round to the welcoming bar.

The space has all you need: capacious sofas, stacks of board games and Sonos sound system. Whether you're gathered with friends over dinner or lounged in front of the TV, this is the perfect space in which to relax. If you take your relaxation truly seriously, take your bubbly out to the hot tub where you can ease any aches and pains you've picked up on Morzine's slopes.

Vesper really makes the most of its outdoor spaces and garden. As well as the hot tub, there's a barbecue, firepit and outdoor seating and dining areas, all beautiful in summer and worth the slight chill in winter for the experience of peace and the fresh mountain air.

Ski room, laundry facilities and other thoughtful extras mean that a holiday here is as stress free as can be.

The ground floor is given over to rest, housing the four beautifully designed en-suite bedrooms, decked out in rich woods and restful blues and neutrals. Professional hairdryers and straighteners, White Company bath goodies and luxury robes and slippers combine to make each bedroom a real shrine to comfort and calm. You'll wake up raring to get out on the snow and make the most of all the adventures Morzine has to offer.
