

Hotel Le Cheval Blanc Courchevel 1850, France

What we love...

We love the five-star ski service at Le Cheval Blanc. Each room or suite has its own flag, which you'll find placed on the slopes each morning to guide you to your pre-warmed boots, customised ski maps and all your equipment, as well as frivolous but utterly delightful luxury extras such as sweet treats and mini heaters and gourmet hot chocolate brought to the foot of the slopes for you.

Hotel Le Cheval Blanc in Courchevel 1850 is the last word in luxury ski hotels. Nestled in the sought-after Jardin Alpin area in a ski-in/ski-out location in Courchevel 1850, this luxury ski hotel will not fail to impress even the most discerning of travellers. At the centre of its ethos is the desire to offer a made-to-measure service from top to bottom.

Original artworks and architectural wonders grace every corner of the hotel, inside and out, bringing a contemporary and bold feel to the otherwise classically conceived 'maison'. Cashmere, fur and leather offer rustic charm alongside cool, sleek burnished brass, bronze and glass. The perfect combination of sophistication and comfort.

The hotel is located within easy reach of some of Courchevel's best boutiques but the shopping also comes to you at Cheval Blanc. A thoughtfully curated collection of luxury and designer goods are available in the hotel's three boutiques, including a Louis Vuitton store and a ski shop which specialises in collaborations between Cheval Blanc and the likes of Lacroix and Nidecker. You can shop in complete privacy and can be sure of picking up something stunning whether for the slopes or for the bars and restaurants of Courchevel.

A customised ski service means each morning you'll find your maps for that day's ski and your warmed boots standing ready for you. And there's also plenty organised for any members of your party who don't fancy skiing, from ice-carving to sled-dog rides and snowman-building with the hotel's dedicated Snowman Kit.

You can be sure of a welcome to warm you through when you return to the hotel each evening, whatever you've spent your day doing. The Guerlain spa and magical swimming pools area will restore body and mind. Cool plunge pools, warming saunas and a simply stunning pool, mirrored in the ceiling above, provide a backdrop in which it's impossible not to relax – and that's before you indulge in a Guerlain cocktail, inspired by the renowned perfumes and a pampering skin treatment.

Spend the evening tripping from beautiful bar to fabulous restaurant, all in Le Cheval's four walls and then make your way to bed for one of the best night's sleep you will ever enjoy in a fabulously designed luxury suite.

It is the stuff snowy dreams are made of.
