

Hotel Les Barmes de l'Ours Val d'Isere, France

What we love...

The four distinct themes of each floor, which transport you to a different world depending on which one you choose.

Located at the foot of the legendary Belvedere run, Hotel Les Barmes de l'Ours offers fantastic ski-in/ski out accommodation for your luxury ski holiday in Val d'Isere. Complete with a spa and swimming pool it has everything you need under one roof.

Arranged over four floors are 49 rooms and 27 suites, including 11 family rooms. Each spacious 'nest' has its own private balcony for atmospheric morning coffees or sundowners depending on your schedule. Each floor offers its own distinct theme at this luxury ski hotel. Scandinavian spirit on the first floor channels airy Nordic vibes with fresh tones, Gustavian furnishings and whitewashed lazured wood.

Lodge of the American Great White North, on the second floor, whisks you across the Atlantic. The rooms feel like cosy lodges with dark wood furnishing, fur, velvet and leather accents.

Traditionalists will love the third floor at this luxury ski hotel in Val d'Isere, where the Alpine Chalet theme offers the traditional surroundings of Savoyard bolt holes with warm honey tones, squishy carpets and rustic furnishings.

Minimalists will gravitate towards the Contemporary themed fourth floor. Light bright mountain lodges decorated in modern, pared down style, provide sanctuary after a busy day on the slopes.

When you're not snowbound, work off some energy in the well-equipped fitness room at Hotel Les Barmes de l'Ours. It's slightly less treacherous than those rocky Alpine peaks!

Slip into the heated pool and gaze up at the stars. Rejuvenate body and soul in the hammam, sauna and Jacuzzi.
