

Six Senses 4-BR Prestige Residence Courchevel 1850

What we love...

The wonderful outdoor hot tub and heavenly on-site Six Senses spa.

Combine up to-the-second airy alpine chic with top class facilities and a near perfect location and you might just come close to visualising this luxury ski chalet. One of a handful of Prestige offerings in the Six Senses Residences collection, you are sure to feel at home in this luxury four bedrooms chalet, located in the heart of Courchevel 1850.

When you're not gliding down the immaculate slopes, you can recharge your batteries back at your beautifully designed and spacious apartment. Ideal for a group of friends or family, it offers four large double en-suite bedrooms and an open plan living/dining area where you can gather for drinks.

Don't forget to wander out, vin chaud in hand, to admire the mountain views from one of the private terraces.

Cool neutrals and luxe touches including fur blankets and designer tableware set the scene. We guarantee you won't find a trace of chintz within these walls.

There's a fully-equipped kitchen, Naturalmat organic mattresses, Organic Pharmacy bathroom amenities, TVs and Apple TV, an iPad controlling the integrated music system, lighting and heating and of course wifi.

When you feel in need of a little R+R, head to the beautiful wellness spa where you can spend a few hours unwinding. Take a dip in the swimming pool, soothe aching muscles in the sauna and Hammam or soak in the bubbling outdoor hot tub whilst you take in the mountain views.

We don't think you could ask for more. However, just in case you think of anything you absolutely need during your luxury ski holiday, just contact the obliging in-resort concierge.
