

The Bungo Morzine

What we love...

We love the range of incredible entertainment spaces, from the large bar and home cinema to the sun-trap garden complete with heated pool and fire pit.

The Bungo takes all the key ingredients of a luxury ski holiday in Morzine and turns up the dial. During your stay at this newly designed six-bedroom chalet, you'll have exclusive use of a heated outdoor swimming pool, hot tub, gym and home cinema room.

After fun-filled days on the slopes, kick off your boots in the toasty boot room and head over to your private sanctuary. As you enter the open-plan living and dining area of this luxury ski chalet, you'll be struck by the welcoming sense of comfort and homeliness. A large dining table has room for everyone to sit and savour the fine-dining experiences created by your private chef, and a cosy lounge corner features sink-into sofas curved around the fireplace, perfect for curling up with a good book or watching TV.

Downstairs is where the evening fun happens – a generous entertaining area comes with a bar, ice machine and beer pump, while next door the home cinema has a projector screen for the ultimate family movie nights.

Restful bedrooms offer plenty of flexibility to suit your group. Extras such as White Company toiletries and professional hair dryers mean you can leave the staples at home and pack a little lighter.

Dining

Food and drink form a big part of your ski holiday experience at The Bungo; you'll have your own personal chef five days a week, who will conjure up fine-dining dishes to suit your tastes and dietary requirements.

Each day begins with a hearty breakfast to set you up for a morning on the slopes. When you return, a delicious afternoon tea will be waiting for you. Dinner is a four-course affair, kicking off with canapés around the fire or out on the deck. You won't go short on drinks, either, with Champagne, wine, spirits, beers and soft drinks all included during your stay.

On the chef's days off, you're free to cook up family favourites in the spacious kitchen or sample the excellent food scene in Morzine; your concierge can assist with recommendations and reservations.

For those visiting in summer, The Bungo is offered on a self-catered basis. Guests are welcome to make use of the outdoor kitchen with its barbecue and pizza oven.

The Bungo

Kids

The Bungo is a family-friendly chalet in Morzine and children are given a warm welcome. Flexible bedroom layouts mean The Bungo can cater to a single large family or multiple groups. They'll love splashing around in the heated outdoor swimming pool after ski school. For indoor downtime, they can enjoy a quiet evening tucked away in the home cinema room for a movie night.

In summer, kids can spend time in the sunny garden and play area with a climbing wall, trampoline, swing set and slide. Make use of the 1 e-bike, 2 mountain and 2 road bikes for fun and active day activities.

Your private chef will be happy to cater for early children's meals and any special requirements.
