

Zems Lodge Morzine, France

What we love...

We love the large south-facing terrace with an outdoor plunge pool, the perfect spot to unwind and enjoy the sunset after a long day on the slopes.

Perched up the hill, a short walk from the centre of Morzine, Zems Lodge offers breathtaking views across the French Alps whilst showcasing the immaculately groomed pistes the Portes Du Soleil is famed for.

The property spans across five floors and is the ultimate in luxury ski chalets. From the ground floor up, the designers have left no locally sourced stone unturned. Ancient timber framework, contemporary colours and luxury touches combine beautifully to form your perfect Alpine retreat.

A short hop in the lift delivers you to the stunning en-suite bedrooms. Each one unique in style and oozing with class as well as views across the village and snowy hills beyond for their own balconies. On the next floor, the master suite offers a lavish space and a free-standing nickel bath awaits. Surely there are few better spots to unwind than parked up, neck deep in hot bubbles, armed with a glass of champagne watching the sun set over the glistening mountains outside.

Above this is where you'll spend the majority of your time at Zems Lodge. The open plan living area is a stunner. A state of the art kitchen with all the conveniences you'd expect from a chalet of this quality, provides the centrepiece to a warm, welcoming, homely space. Clever use of colour adds contrast to the aged timber and stone and with the flickering flames adding a dancing auburn hue from the hanging cast iron stove and you have the perfect place for you and your family to spend a week in consummate luxury.

After a busy day on the slopes, why not unwind in the glass-fronted sauna which takes in stunning views, then dip into the heated outdoor plunge pool. For those who require further pampering, there is a dedicated massage treatment room where guests can enjoy the chalet's in-house Bamford treatments.
