

Chalet 1992 Courchevel 1850

What we love...

We love the entertainment spaces here; both the adult games room with pool table and bar, and the magical kids' games room, filled with arcades, toys, books and hidey holes. This is a chalet built for fun.

Hidden away in a quiet corner of Courchevel sits Chalet 1992. Part of the exclusive Les Airelles Hotel, this luxury ski chalet offers that perfect combination of quiet privacy and lots of convenience.

The hotel has several wonderful restaurants, a bar and a cigar lounge, all at your disposal and staff will be only too pleased to help in any way they can. But if you prefer to just hole up with good friends or family for a week and explore all that Courchevel has to offer, you've also come to the right place.

Chalet 1992's location, close to some of Europe's best skiing, makes it a destination property for snow bunnies, and a well-organised ski room makes getting to and from the slopes a cinch. It's also close enough to central Courchevel to really make the most of the bars, restaurants and partying that the town is famous for.

For those of us that also value coming home after a tiring day on the slopes and completely relaxing, there's plenty of that, too. Chalet 1992 has its own spa with everything you need to soothe and calm body and soul, including a sauna, Hammam, Iyashi dome as well as fitness suite and treatment room. A private swimming pool, with relaxation areas and beds nearby and a bar just steps from the water, is the perfect place to chill out on chilly afternoons. There's also a Jacuzzi cave to relax in – Champagne and a good book recommended.

This is a great house for a celebration or gathering, with a total of three living spaces; some quiet areas with capacious sofas and fireplaces, ideal for catching up with your group on all the events of the day, others sociable spaces for TV watching and lounging. There's also a huge dining space, with a refectory table and chandeliers overhead, where you'll enjoy long meals, seemingly bottomless bottles of wine and good conversation long into the night.

There's plenty to keep everyone in your party entertained, too, from the kids' zone with arcade games in the playroom and a woodland-style kids' den, to the adult games room complete with library, snooker and bar. And don't forget to make time for a special movie night in the private cinema room during your stay, too.

Kids

Children are always welcome at Chalet 1992. There's a kids' dormitory with treehouse style bunks for them to hide in, and plenty of space to make their own away from the boring adults. A children's playroom includes arcade games, a library and lots more, including a log-cabin-style den complete with very friendly animal heads on the wall.

The private cinema is an ideal way to keep them busy in the afternoons following ski school and staff will be happy to provide popcorn and movie recommendations. The swimming pool is also sure to be a big hit with kids of all ages.

If you want something a little more adventurous, the chalet staff can also arrange outings, such as dog-sledding, picnics on the mountain and horse and carriage rides.
