

Apartment Big Tom St Anton

What we love...

We love the sophisticated and sociable living spaces. This is a truly stylish place to kick back with friends, and the property is designed for gathering together.

Apartment Big Tom is a spacious property that takes up one entire floor of Chalet Fabiola, an exclusive residence in St Anton comprising of four beautiful apartments. Sleeping up to 12 people, this really is an apartment made for enjoying on your luxury ski holiday with its dark neutral decor, heavily upholstered furniture, soft curves, warm woods and natural stone.

The spacious living area has a fireplace, circular seating area where you can curl up for a chat, and a stylish bar area to gather in for a post-slopes drink. The space has wonderful panoramic views through the floor-to-ceiling windows, too, so the mountains are ever present. Then, behind the circular sofas is a huge wood carved mural depicting a map of the surrounding area so you can plan your skiing routes for the next day over a glass of bubbly.

Your sophisticated dining space, with walls finished in reused chalet wood for an authentic feel, and a pretty chandelier that hangs over the table, gently lighting the area to encourage intimate conversations over your gourmet meals. If you fancy eating alfresco, the adjoining balcony (one of three that surrounds the apartment) has a barbecue fire pit where you can gather for relaxed dinners and some cosy chat around the fire.

If you can drag yourself away from the cosiness of your apartment, you'll find excellent skiing right outside the front door. St Anton is known as the biggest and best resort in the Arlberg region, so you'll never tire of finding new and exciting routes to ski. If you want a day to take things a little easier, St Anton itself is full of boutique shops, restaurants and cafes, all perfect for people-watching.

After a busy day exploring the mountains, spend an hour or two in the shared wellness area enjoying a sauna, massage or beauty treatment and soothing away any aches. There's also a gym area for those who want to maintain their fitness.

At the end of each day, once you've been well fed, enjoyed fine wines and talked the night away, retire to quiet and cosy ensuite bedrooms. Fluffy robes, flatscreen TVs and stacks of faux fur throws make each a cosy bolthole of its own, and each has its own spa-style bathroom. Fall into a deep and restful sleep, ready for more adventures in the morning.
