

Chalet Davos Val d'Isere

What we love...

We love the sheltered, sunken outdoor hot tub with its beautiful mountain views.

Located in the exclusive, sun-drenched hamlet of Le Crêt, this luxury ski chalet with outdoor hot tub manages to seamlessly balance the warm, cosy feel of a family home with modern facilities. Traditionally furnished with antiques, solid oak floors, and stone fireplaces, Chalet Davos features stylish accents such as cow skin footstools and vibrant velvet throws.

Wake to far-reaching views of the forest-clad mountains, which you can admire from the breakfast table, or to enjoy the fresh alpine air, take your coffee out onto the balcony. Collect your skis and boots – toasty warm thanks to the heated boot warmers – and allow yourself to be swiftly transported to the slopes with the in-resort driver service.

On your return, the sitting room beckons with its wood-burning fire and sofas you'll feel you could sink into forever. If you can drag yourself away, the beautiful granite kitchen has everything you need to wow family and friends with your culinary skills.

Downstairs, the home cinema room is where you'll curl up with some nibbles and while away the evening in front of a film. Access to the sunken outdoor hot tub is on this level, under an arcaded stone shelter so you stay safely under cover while watching snowflakes fall.

Chalet Davos has a choice of four delightful, twin or king en-suite bedrooms, sleeping eight guests with space for two additional guests in the home cinema room. The crowning jewel is the luxurious master bedroom, with its dressing room, fireplace, and terrace. It also features a freestanding bath from which you can watch the stars twinkle above the peaks, before sinking into the regal four poster bed, the perfect place to drift off after a day on the pistes.

Dining

Tailor your luxury ski holiday to your preferences with the choice of service level available at Chalet Davos.

The self-catered option gives you the freedom to try out Val d'Isère's many fine dining establishments. If you like to rustle up your own home cooked meals, you'll find the kitchen more than suitably equipped.

For those who like the luxury of a catered ski chalet but with the privacy that comes with no staff, the 'contactless catering' service is perfect. You'll find your kitchen stocked with appetising pre-prepared meals on arrival, so all that's left for you to do is heat up the dishes and prepare an easy side such as a salad or vegetables. Breakfasts and a tempting afternoon tea are included, so there's plenty to keep your energy reserves up out on the mountain. Evenings are a gourmet affair, with a kir apéritif, nibbles, three delicious courses, and cheese provided on six nights, followed by a glass of the unlimited wine.

A bed and breakfast option is also available. The chalet will be stocked with fruit & yoghurts, cheese & cold meats, eggs & bacon, etc, all of which will be topped-up as needed. Fresh bread & croissants are also delivered each morning.

Chalet Davos

Kids

Chalet Davos has plenty to keep children of all ages entertained, from taking a dip in the outdoor hot tub to setting up camp in the home cinema room. The sociable layout of the living area allows you to spend time as a family playing games and chatting about your adventures on the mountain, while dinner cooks in the kitchen and the fire crackles nearby.

The in-resort driver service (08:30-10:00 and 16:00-18:00) is available each morning to whisk your little ones to the snow front in time for ski school, which can be pre-booked along with childcare on request.

You can also pre-arrange your ski equipment and lift passes, so that instead of heading into the centre to organise these on arrival, you can simply enjoy your champagne reception while the kids get stuck into a film.
