

Chalet 1850 Val d'Isere

What we love...

We love the beautiful spa area with hot tub and sauna as well as a shower area and relaxation space.

Authentic contemporary style and top-of-the-range tech, marry perfectly in this luxury ski chalet in Val d'Isère. Nestled at the edge of a forest in a quiet spot, yet just moments from the lifts and the centre of Val d'Isère, Chalet 1850 truly offers the best of everything.

On the top floor of the chalet you'll find a light and airy open-plan living space, decorated in a relaxing neutral palette and natural materials. A vaulted ceiling and huge windows allow the sunlight to flood into the sitting area, which is furnished with bespoke and designer pieces, created with comfort in mind. Squashy sofas and cosy armchairs are gathered around a roaring wood burning fire, from where you can watch the snow fall on the mountain.

Adjacent is a refectory-style table with bench seating down one side, large enough to seat ten of you for leisurely meals. The exposed beams and statement lighting give this space a contemporary and stylish look as night falls. The sociable, open-plan kitchen is kitted out with top-of-the-range appliances, perfect for either you to cook up a storm, and be able to chat to the other guests, too.

In the afternoons, following an exciting day on Val d'Isère's slopes, you can kick off your gear in the private ski room, with heated boot warmers, and head straight for the spa area on the first floor. Ease slopes-weary muscles in the indoor Jacuzzi and sauna, soak in a luxurious shower and rest up with a drink and a good book in the relaxation area until it's almost time for dinner.

After your evening meal, we highly recommend you take a night cap and a blanket out onto the balcony. Enjoy the stars before heading to one of the luxurious bedrooms, all designed to be totally relaxing and all with spa-style bathrooms perfect for pampering. By the time you're ready to crawl under a warm duvet and sink into a plump pillow for two, you'll find your bed turned down, all ready for sweet dreams.

For larger groups, this property can be rented along with Chalet 1855 (subject to availability). Combined, this can accommodate up to 16 adults plus 8 children and accessed via the shared garage.
