

Chalet 1855 Val d'Isere

What we love...

We love the stunning swimming pool, with a Jacuzzi and sauna nearby as well as a comfortable relaxation area.

Set in a quiet part of town, this luxury ski chalet in Val d'Isère is a brilliant base for exploring one of the world's best ski areas and a great property to host a group of friends or family. Chalet 1855 sleeps 12 people (including four children) but can be booked alongside its sister property, Chalet 1850 (subject to availability), to accommodate up to 24 with linked access through the shared garage.

The heart of the property is the open-plan living space on the top floor. Flooded with light and boasting cathedral-style vaulted ceilings and huge windows on three sides, this is a wonderful place to relax with friends. The sitting room is decorated in neutral and grey tones for a calming feel, with plenty of blankets and faux fur throws to cosy it up. Rough-hewn wooden beams bring a modern-rustic style to the space. Capacious sofas and an open fire make this the perfect spot to sprawl with the rest of your party and catch up on everyone's mountain adventures.

Nearby is a cosy dining space to seat 10 people, lit from above by statement lighting along the same Alpine theme. Adjacent to this is the modern kitchen which is well-kitted out should you choose to cook for yourselves, and also has a sociable island area where you can sit with a glass of wine and watch your chef at work.

On the second floor you'll find 1855's beautiful spa area, which includes a swimming pool, indoor Jacuzzi and sauna as well as a relaxation area and massage room. After a long morning on the slopes, there's nothing like a couple of hours in the spa to have you feeling fresh as a daisy again and perk you up in time for evening bubbly and canapés. Or you might prefer to slip into your comfies and settle down with popcorn in front of a movie matinee in the stylish cinema room or the cosy TV snug.

The practicalities are all considered, too, with an office area, garage and laundry room all on site to make day-to-day life easy for you all.

At the end of each day you'll find each of the five bedrooms, with their Alpine style, plush soft furnishings and spa-style bathrooms a wonderful place to wind down before you fall asleep.

Dining

Good food and fine wines are a key part of your stay at Chalet 1855. Your chef will be in touch before your holiday to discuss menus and any dietary requirements to ensure every meal is memorable for all the best reasons.

You'll wake each day to a hearty breakfast waiting for you downstairs. Help yourselves to fruit and artisan yoghurts, alongside pastries, fresh breads, cereals and regional meats and cheeses. There's a different hot option, too, so you'll leave for the slopes well fed and warmed through.

When you return from your skiing day, head straight for the sofas and the fire where a freshly baked afternoon tea is waiting, with sweet and savoury treats and plenty of hot drinks.

In the evenings, enjoy champagne and canapés while your chef prepares a delicious four-course meal for you all. Carefully chosen house wines are served alongside the meal and, of course, beers, spirits and soft drinks are also available.

On the chef's day off, a continental breakfast will be left for you and staff will be able to help you with booking the best tables at the best restaurants in Val d'Isère.

Chalet 1855

Kids

This family-friendly ski chalet in Val d'Isère has been designed to create a space that kids will love and that makes life stress-free for parents.

When they're back from ski school, there's plenty to keep children of all ages entertained at Chalet 1855. They might like to head down to the spa to splash in the private indoor pool, or hunker down in the TV snug or home cinema room to watch a movie.

On six nights of the week your chef will serve an early evening kids' tea, with child-friendly menus.

A kids' bunk room has four chunky wood bunks, complete with teddies, to create a calming and cosy space for children to make their own,
