

Eclat Soleil 227

Verbier

What we love...

We love the enchanting balcony, with its comfortable outdoor sofa, stunning mountain views, and bar seating, the perfect spot for an après-ski drink.

Bright, modern, and emanating understated elegance, Eclat Soleil 227 enjoys a fantastic location just below Verbier's main lift station, a mere 2-minute stroll from the skiing and within easy walking distance of the vibrant centre. This stylish, neutrally decorated luxury ski apartment is peppered with colourful accents in the eclectic artworks, and flanked by sun-drenched balconies with lovely mountain views.

On entering this luxury apartment, you'll be drawn to its homely open plan living space, comprising the well-appointed kitchen, inviting dining area, and enormous sofa encircling the beautiful stone fireplace. This is where you'll retreat to after a day on the snow, warming up by the crackling log fire and watching the sun dip behind the summits. On milder days you can take an apéritif out onto the delightful balcony and soak up the last of the afternoon sun on the comfortable outdoor seating.

After tucking into your evening meal and curling up on the sofa to watch a film, Eclat Soleil 227's three charming bedrooms beckon for a much-needed rest. Each with balcony access, they're the perfect place to restore your energy reserves.

With a handy shared ski and boot locker providing the finishing touch, Eclat Soleil 227 has everything you need for a memorable luxury ski holiday.
