

Le Mas des Oliviers Provence

What we love...

We love the quirky additions to the gardens, particularly the 'aperitif tree', a bar built beneath branches for shade.

Set among glorious gardens, this luxury villa in Provence is a total escape from the everyday. Each room in the typically Provencal stone buildings has been designed to delight, decorated in country cottage style, with colourful and patterned soft furnishings bringing pops of brightness to the calming, neutral palette.

The light and airy living room has a huge U-shaped sofa providing ample lounging space and an authentic fireplace, stocked with wood for cosy evenings. Close by is the modern-rustic dining room with a long refectory table and floor-to-ceiling windows offering garden views. Cook, eat and socialise in the large, open-plan kitchen where you can chat over a glass of wine or watch your cook at work.

As well as the main house, there is a plethora of smaller buildings for your use including a guesthouse with its own bathroom, kitchenette and living area, ideal for grandparents, teens or anyone who needs a little more space and a well-equipped fitness room.

Step outside into a little bit of paradise where you can wander through rose gardens and olive groves or among the wooded areas at the edge of the estate. You might like to take breakfast in the warmth of the greenhouse, sitting among the greenery, or enjoy coffee on the terraces as the day begins to warm. On sunny afternoons, there's nowhere nicer to be than splashing in the swimming pool, or sitting in the shade of the pool house, lounging on sofas or preparing snacks in the outdoor kitchen. And evenings are always best kicked off at the beautiful wooden bar built around the trunk of a tree, followed by long meals at the table under the plane trees as the sun goes down.

Each of the bedrooms has access to an outdoor space and all are beautifully designed to be cool, calming spaces, just made for good sleep. Soak in deep bathtubs, pull luxury cotton sheets around you and curl up with a book and the scent of the gardens wafting in on the breeze through the window.

Dining

This is a wonderful part of the world for foodies to enjoy and excellent food and fine wines are a key part of any stay at Le Mas des Oliviers.

The property has a light, bright and modern kitchen with all the gadgetry you could need to cater for small meals and snacks yourselves. A large island makes it a truly sociable space and a pantry and wine cellar allow for all the storage you could need. Meals can be taken in the elegant dining room with beautiful views through the bay window, or outside at the al fresco dining table under the plane trees, where there's space for 14 to relax and enjoy meals in the shade. There's also an indoor barbecue space with kitchen and dining areas alongside in the pool house, so you can make the most of outdoor eating even if the rain clouds happen to gather.

Kids

Children are sure to fall in love with this fairytale home in enchanting gardens. With plenty of space to run among the rose garden, vegetable patches and wooded areas, they'll always be nicely tired out by bedtime. The pool has a roll-across safety cover and is enclosed by a wooden fence for your peace of mind, and with the pool house nearby, they can sit and dry off under cover whenever they need to. There's a pétanque court where they can learn the art of this traditional French ball game, too.

The highlight for kids is sure to be the Shepherd's hut playroom located by the rose garden, with play kitchen, dens to hide in and toy boxes galore to keep them busy for hours.

Nannies can be arranged on request and there is a cot available.
