

Chalet Carolina Selva Val Gardena

What we love...

We love the outdoor hot tub out on the terrace with panoramic views of the Dolomites. Best enjoyed in the evenings alongside a bottle of bubbly and with the fires nearby flickering.

Hidden away in a peaceful valley, surrounded by fairytale woodlands, is Chalet Carolina. The property has been designed to maximise the panoramic views of the Dolomites that surround it, and to offer something at every time of year. In summer, you'll enjoy exploring the lakes and mountains that surround the chalet, and in winter, you'll make the most of what is regularly voted one of Europe's best ski resorts.

This luxury ski chalet has a stylish and atmospheric aesthetic. At its heart is a spacious living room with TV, feature fireplace and huge, L-shaped sofa where you and your friends can relax after you return from the slopes. The dining room features a solid wood table that's a work of art in itself, and there's also a bar corner and wine cellar to add to the country manor house feel.

Wellbeing is a key factor in the design of Chalet Carolina, too. One of the highlights of the property, is the outdoor hot tub with views of the mountains. There's also an outdoor sauna where you can soothe any aching limbs, post ski. Additionally, you can wrap up in a cosy blanket, with a drink in hand, and watch the twinkling stars around one of the several fire pits.

If feeling good for you is all about keeping fit, you'll love the mini gym, too, with exercise bike, treadmill, bench and free weights area.

Finish each day by falling into super-comfy beds, beneath thick duvets and soft sheets in the five luxe bedrooms, knowing that when you throw open the curtains in the morning, you'll be greeted by that same awesome mountain view.
