

Lord of Snow Courchevel 1850

What we love...

We love the beautiful spa area with pool, Jacuzzi and sauna to restore both body and mind.

Fabulously cosy and super-snowy, this luxury ski-in/ski out chalet in Courchevel 1850 ticks all the right boxes. Lord of Snow is perched right on the edge of the Bellecote piste, so your skiing day starts the second you step out of the front door.

As well as being the perfect choice for snow bunnies, it's also a wonderful escape for those who love style and a lot of home comforts, too. Little luxuries such as underfloor heating and built-in sound system soothe your senses (and warm your feet, too). A colourful, contemporary palette of colours and Alpine styling create a warm welcome at Lord of Snow, and nowhere more so than in the open-plan living spaces at the very top of the building.

The double-height seating areas with vaulted ceilings are flooded with light by day through the glass doors that open out onto the balconies. Two seating areas allow everyone to relax in comfort while catching up with friends and in the middle of it all is a statement electric steam fireplace.

Nearby is an intimate dining space with comfortable upholstered chairs designed to encourage you to linger over gourmet meals each evening. The sleek and modern kitchen has a sociable breakfast bar area where you can perch with a glass of wine and watch your private chef at work.

If R&R is top of your agenda, you'll find it in spades here. An entire floor dedicated to spa experiences offers a large, heated swimming pool, lit by twinkling lights, as well as a Hammam, sauna and Jacuzzi, where you can soothe away any aches and pains. Stylists and masseurs can be arranged to visit you in the treatment rooms to work their magic, too. And if a day on Courchevel's slopes isn't enough to wear you out there's also a top-of-the-range fitness suite.

This luxury ski chalet has been carefully designed to cater for all your needs, and while it's only a 10-minute walk into the bright lights of Courchevel and all its bars, cafes and restaurants, Lord of Snow has everything you could need under one roof. On snowy afternoons, cosy up in the fabulous cinema room with a movie, snuggled on the capacious sofas, with Mongolian goat skin throws to keep you extra warm. Next door is a games room with a beautiful billiards table where you can relax with drinks and friends over a few games. And then there's a wine lounge and bar, in which wine-tasting experiences can be arranged in the evenings.

Eating

You can be sure you will be well fed at Lord of Snow. Your private chef will be available to serve breakfast each morning to set you up for a day on Courchevel's slopes and the chalet host will serve afternoon tea when you return from your skiing day.

On six evenings of the week, you'll enjoy a gourmet dinner in the chalet's stunning dining area, with large, wooden table and comfy upholstered chairs, close to the wrap-around balcony where you can step out for some mountain air between courses.

On the chef's night off, the chalet's staff will be happy to assist with booking the best tables at the best local restaurants.

Please note that food and drinks are charged for separately at the end of your stay.

Lord of Snow

Kids

Lord of Snow offers a warm welcome to younger guests.

A dedicated children's bedroom has been designed specifically for younger guests with cosy bunks, wardrobe and study area, as well as an en-suite with walk-in shower and bath tub. A double bedroom adjoins the bunk room, making this an ideal set-up for a family.

The property has a ski-in/ski-out location, making it easy to get out onto the slopes with kids in tow. When you're ready to return home, there's plenty to do at Lord of Snow on chilly afternoons. Set the kids up in the cinema room with popcorn and a movie matinee, or accompany them for a splash in the swimming pool.
