

Chalet Joy Morzine

What we love...

We love the stunning open plan living space, with its wood-burning stove, spacious dining area, and views of the slopes.

Surrounded by snow-laden pine forest and a stone's throw from the pistes, Chalet Joy enjoys a sought-after position close to central Morzine. It's a short drive or walk from the ski lifts, and it's even possible to ski to the door when snow conditions are favourable. With modern alpine decor characterised by exposed wood, cowskin rugs, and interesting sculptures, this brand-new, duplex penthouse promises an unforgettable luxury ski holiday at the heart of this much-loved resort.

Chalet Joy's crowning glory is its large, vaulted living space, where you can admire breathtaking views of the pistes through full-height windows or from one of the two balconies. One balcony even harbours an outdoor hot tub, offering much-needed relief for tired legs after a day on the mountain. The stylish breakfast bar and enormous dining table are where you'll swap stories of the slopes over home-cooked food. Nearby, a fire flickers in the woodburning stove while your favourite tunes play through the Sonos sound system. After dinner, curl up in the inviting sitting area or head down to the cosy, home cinema room for a movie night.

Chalet Joy sleeps up to 12 guests in four delightful bedrooms with private bathrooms, including a family room with bunk beds for two little ones. The master bedroom is blessed with its own balconies and a luxurious bathroom with a freestanding roll-top bath, perfect for a post-ski soak. Complete with a private ski room with boot warmers, Chalet Joy has all the ingredients of a magical ski escape.

For those traveling with friends and family, Chalet Joy can be paired with the neighbouring Apartment Le Tournesol, which accommodates up to 8 guests. Alternatively, Chalet 46°, Apartment 6°, Lodge Des Nants, or Chalet Genepi are all just a few minutes' walk from Chalet Joy.
