

Chalet Robin

Santa Christina Val Gardena

What we love...

We love the private spa where you can swim while enjoying views of the Dolomites.

In the very 'shadow' of the Dolomites, this luxury ski chalet is designed to make the most of its stunning location. Chalet Robin's double-height ceilings and huge windows allow light to flood the main rooms of this chic and cosy chalet, and maximise the amazing views of the mountain from every angle.

Designed with wood and stone and a neutral palette, the interiors feel at one with the natural world outside and there's no cosier way to spend an afternoon than snuggled up on the sofas and armchairs of Chalet Robin's living room, watching the snow fall outside. Light the fire, grab a drink from the wine cabinet and enjoy making memories with friends and family in this magical setting.

There's plenty to keep active types busy, too, when they're not on the slopes. The chalet is blessed with top-of-the-range gadgetry including flatscreen TVs with satellite and soundbar. And downstairs is a simply stunning private wellness area, incorporating swimming pool with whirlpool, a warming sauna and a relaxation area.

Outdoor spaces are not forgotten either, with an al fresco seating space where you can relax in the fresh air and get up close and personal with that mountain view, as well as a Weber barbecue so you can wrap up warm and eat outdoors in good weather.

The days are packed with adventure here, so the designers have ensured that bedtimes are as restful and relaxing as can be. Each bedroom has balcony access, private bathroom and plenty of little luxuries, such as fluffy robes and slippers, to make it a real retreat from the world.

For larger groups, Chalet Robin can be rented with Chalet Filip accommodating up to 16 guests.
