

Le Mas des Gomberts Provence

What we love...

We love the pretty pétanque court, which exudes French country charm.

Life is both simple and chic at this luxury villa in France. Once a sheepfold, Le Mas des Gomberts has been thoughtfully reinvented to become a stunning four-bedroom property on the prestigious Chateau de Berne estate, home to a Relais & Chateau Hotel, and a raft of renowned restaurants.

The villa sits in its own private land, made up of olive groves, lavender fields and a vegetable garden, full of seasonal produce for you to sample for most of the year. And the surrounding estate allows you live close to nature, enjoying the many cycle and footpaths. But there's no shortage of little luxuries, with the hotel's three swimming pools (2 outdoor and 1 indoor), two tennis courts and fitness rooms open to you as well.

Le Mas des Gomberts itself is designed in typically Provençal style, with exposed stone, whitewashed walls and rough-hewn woods. Antique furniture and vintage-style fabrics add the finishing touches of French country chic and a relaxed home-from-home feel, from the living area with sofas gathered around a roaring wood fire, to the charming dining space, perfect for lazy lunches, to the library lounge where you can relax with a good book or the papers. There's also an office just in case you need a quiet space in which to catch up on emails – or escape with a book.

Four light and airy bedrooms, decked out with French linens and en-suite bedrooms give everyone a restful place to escape at the end of the evening.

Step outside into the Provençal sunshine and you're amid the gorgeous gardens, buzzing with insect life and with the scent of lavender wafting in on the breeze. Grab a pastis and have a game of pétanque or sit on the heated swimming pool's edge with a cocktail by your side at sundown and feel the real world begin to melt pleasingly away.

Dining

Le Mas des Gomberts is a luxury self-catering French villa that offers maximum flexibility. The villa has its own kitchen garden which you can raid for ingredients to use in the fully-equipped farmhouse kitchen. There's also a beautiful charming dining room. Food is high on the agenda here, with lots of markets and restaurants nearby – in autumn you can even take home freshly pressed olive oil from the estate groves.

As guests of the Chateau de Berne estate, you also make use of the Michelin-starred Le Jardin de Berne restaurant. There are also two more restaurants and a bar on site.

A private chef or a pre-arrival groceries delivery can be arranged, too.

Kids

We defy kids not to be enchanted by Le Mas des Gomberts. They're sure to fall in love with its magical gardens and surrounding land with endless biking and hiking tracks to explore safely.

There are plenty of adventures to be had back at the family friendly villa, too, from playing pétanque to splashing in the heated swimming pool. A kids' dorm to sleep four gives them a private space in which to escape from the grown-ups. And on rainy evenings, they can cosy up in the dormitory with a film. Just add popcorn.

The staff can help with organising nannies and babysitters if you require them.
